

1260 North High Street, Columbus, Ohio 43201
t: 614.291.0431 f: 614.421.6871
www.dressforsuccess.org/Columbus

Mission Statement

Dress for Success Columbus promotes the economic independence of disadvantaged women by providing professional attire, a network of support and the career development tools to help women thrive in work and in life.

Programs At-A-Glance

- Dressing Program - Provides interview suiting, footwear, accessories and personal care products to disadvantaged women seeking employment.
- Career Center - Clients utilize skill development software programs in a professional environment. A library of empowering publications and current job opportunities as well as one-on-one consultations with human resource professionals provide essential resources.
- Professional Women's Group (PWG) - Peer-to-peer networking, a mentoring program and monthly meetings that engage participants on the issues of Financial Literacy, Professional Development and Personal Growth.

2009 Snapshot

- Since opening in 2007, more than 1,000 women in Central Ohio are now empowered to achieve economic self-sufficiency through Dress for Success programs.
- 94% of PWG members retained employment and 6% enrolled in school to complete their education.
- Launched a workforce readiness Career Center with computer skill tutorials and HR resources.
- Over 80 agencies referred women to receive services.
- 75 active volunteers ensured our mission continued to thrive and transform the lives of the women we serve.

Printing Courtesy of  Dress for Success Columbus relies on the financial and in-kind support of individuals, corporations, foundations and social service partners. Your contribution is a significant factor in our success. Please give generously.

1260 North High Street, Columbus, Ohio 43201
t: 614.291.0431 f: 614.421.6871
www.dressforsuccess.org/Columbus

Mission Statement

Dress for Success Columbus promotes the economic independence of disadvantaged women by providing professional attire, a network of support and the career development tools to help women thrive in work and in life.

Programs At-A-Glance

- Dressing Program - Provides interview suiting, footwear, accessories and personal care products to disadvantaged women seeking employment.
- Career Center - Clients utilize skill development software programs in a professional environment. A library of empowering publications and current job opportunities as well as one-on-one consultations with human resource professionals provide essential resources.
- Professional Women's Group (PWG) - Peer-to-peer networking, a mentoring program and monthly meetings that engage participants on the issues of Financial Literacy, Professional Development and Personal Growth.

2009 Snapshot

- Since opening in 2007, more than 1,000 women in Central Ohio are now empowered to achieve economic self-sufficiency through Dress for Success programs.
- 94% of PWG members retained employment and 6% enrolled in school to complete their education.
- Launched a workforce readiness Career Center with computer skill tutorials and HR resources.
- Over 80 agencies referred women to receive services.
- 75 active volunteers ensured our mission continued to thrive and transform the lives of the women we serve.

Printing Courtesy of  Dress for Success Columbus relies on the financial and in-kind support of individuals, corporations, foundations and social service partners. Your contribution is a significant factor in our success. Please give generously.

1260 North High Street, Columbus, Ohio 43201
t: 614.291.0431 f: 614.421.6871
www.dressforsuccess.org/Columbus

Mission Statement

Dress for Success Columbus promotes the economic independence of disadvantaged women by providing professional attire, a network of support and the career development tools to help women thrive in work and in life.

Programs At-A-Glance

- Dressing Program - Provides interview suiting, footwear, accessories and personal care products to disadvantaged women seeking employment.
- Career Center - Clients utilize skill development software programs in a professional environment. A library of empowering publications and current job opportunities as well as one-on-one consultations with human resource professionals provide essential resources.
- Professional Women's Group (PWG) - Peer-to-peer networking, a mentoring program and monthly meetings that engage participants on the issues of Financial Literacy, Professional Development and Personal Growth.

2009 Snapshot

- Since opening in 2007, more than 1,000 women in Central Ohio are now empowered to achieve economic self-sufficiency through Dress for Success programs.
- 94% of PWG members retained employment and 6% enrolled in school to complete their education.
- Launched a workforce readiness Career Center with computer skill tutorials and HR resources.
- Over 80 agencies referred women to receive services.
- 75 active volunteers ensured our mission continued to thrive and transform the lives of the women we serve.

Printing Courtesy of  Dress for Success Columbus relies on the financial and in-kind support of individuals, corporations, foundations and social service partners. Your contribution is a significant factor in our success. Please give generously.